FROZEN IN.

A Bouquet of Flowers in a Cake of Ice.

From the S. F. Stock Report.

At Phil. McGovern's saloon, junction of Market and Kearney streets, there is on exhibition a most beautiful work of art, for it is nothing less than that. It is a bouquet of natural flowers frozen into a cake of ice. The ice is artificial, and was manufactured by the Mutual Ice Company. It is clear as plate glass, so clear that the smallest print in a newspaper can be read through it, though it is seven inches in thickness (or was so yesterday), and in the centre of the block is the bouquet. The freezing of the flowers has added to their beauty, giving to them the appearance as if covered with dew that the sun is shining on, and the tips of the leaves and edges of many of the flowers look like burnished silver. The idea is in itself artistic, but the real beauty of the flowers as they stand in the ice can only be appreciated by an inspection. The saloon has been visited by a great many people desirous of viewing this novel device, and all who have seen it have been at once impressed with its beauty.

A Cat Adopts a Rat.

A physician's cat in Wolcottville, Conn., has adopted a rat. Some weeks ago she lost her kittens, and a few days after she was seen playing with a half-grown rat, and further observation revealed that she had taken charge of its education. The rat played with the cat, came at her call, and followed her about like a kitten. One night the doctor took the rat from her, put it in a basket, covered the basket with a sieve, and placed a flat-iron on the sieve. But during the night the cat charged on the basket and carried off her pet, and probably hid it in the barn where she had got it.

Changed His Mind.

John Williams, merchant of Rutledge, Ga., sued a desperado. The defendant entered the store in a furious passion, held out the summons in one hand, clutched a long knife in the other, and said, "Williams, have you sued me?" Williams knew that an immediate "Yes" would make him sure of a stab. "Let me get my spectacles so that I can read the paper," he said. He went behind the counter and came back, not with his glasses, but with an axe across his shoulder. "Yes," he said, "I have sued you." "All right," remarked the desperado. "I guess I'll pay the bill."

They Wanted no Stepmother.

Net and Pet Woods of Marion, Ohio, warned their father that if he took a second wife they would exterminate her. He disobeyed: The girls armed themselves with revolvers on the night of the marriage, broke open the door of the bridal chamber, and fired several shots into the darkness. They missed their stepmother, however, and slightly wounded their father.

A Case of Skin Grafting.

A boy fell into a vat of potash at Danielsville, Mass., two years ago, and the skin of both legs was destroyed. A resort was had to skin grafting, and over 2,000 bits of cuticle, from the boy's mother, the family coachman, and several accommodating neighbors, have been used. The result is completely successful.

SCRATCHING ADVOCATED.

George William Curtis recently lectured in New York on the "Machine Politics." He made a powerful speech for independence in voting. The following is a passage from the lecture by the leader of the "Young Scratches."

"The first powerful and conclusive remedy for the tyranny of the machine, open to every self-respecting man who values his party so highly that he wishes to keep it effective by keeping it clean, is scratching. The word has become a sneer, a taunt, a bitter reproach; but the test of the power and effectiveness of the remedy is the fury with which it assailed. The humor of a scratch makes the camp of the machine hum as that of the approach of a detective or a marshal stirs the camp of whisky moonshiners in the mountains. The machine denounces scratchers as justly as Laud denounced the Puritans, or George III. the rebellious Yankees, or slave-holding Democrats Republican woolly heads. If we have good men upon the ticket, we must scratch bad men off; and when the machine is taught that the wif's punishment of defeat at the polls by the hand of the individual voter will follow betrayal of the party by nominations unfit to be made, such nominations will cease."

THE CHANCES AT CHICAGO.

The S. P. Bulletin figures that should the unit rule be enforced at the Chicago Convention, Grant will be six votes short of a nomination on the first ballot. If not nominated on the first ballot, his strength will be diminished by seventy votes, under the operation of the ruling which liberates delegates from instructions after the first ballot.

The same journal estimates Blaine's strength at 195 votes, 90 less than he started in with in 1876. After the first ballot, he would gain 85 and lose 3, net gain 72. This would give him a total of 276 votes on the second ballot, 112 short of the 378 necessary to carry the nomination.

From these figures it appears that the nomination of either Grant or Blaine is very doubtful. The nomination may be carried for one of the leading candidates by some artifice, or a dark horse may slip in and win the race.

APPOINTMENT OF DELEGATES.

The following table shows the number of delegates which each State and Territory has in the Chicago Convention, which meets on June 2d. The basis of representation is two delegates for each electoral vote. The total number of delegates is 756. Necessary to a choice 379.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Democrats have such an excellent system of nominating. They have everything nicely adjusted beforehand. For a week or two the papers about the state have been announcing with confidence, that A. M. Hillhouse would be Chairman and that Tilden would be the first choice for President, Cassidy for Congress, and Belknap for Judge. Nothing occurred to mar the harmony of the proceedings and, amid immense or intense enthusiasm, or words to that effect, the programme was carried out at Winnemucca yesterday.

The editor of the Mammoth City Herald is evidently unwilling that the graces of his style should be overlooked. The following is from the last number of the Herald: "Snow and red noses, blue lips and overcoats, blustering winds and snowshoes are things of the past, and it looks as though Summer had leaped at a single bound from her snowy couch to try and make amends for her long absence by breaking at once the chains of the ice King. (How is that sentence for high?)"

The New York Tribune, yesterday published tables showing that the third-term support comes from states which can only nominate, while the opposition comes from states which can alone elect. That is an unanswerable demonstration that if the representation in the National Republican Convention were based on the ratio of Republican votes, Grant would have no standing in the Chicago Convention—hardly enough to have his name appear among the "scattering" on the roll-call.

Henry G. Hanks, State Mineralogist of California, has issued a circular explaining the objects of the State Mining Bureau created by an act of the last Legislature. He invites contributions of ores, mineral specimens, Indian relics, etc., which will be placed in the State Museum. The address of the Bureau is 318 Pine street, San Francisco.

Frank Page is willing to be still further sacrificed for the good of his congressional district. Mr. Page is the most influential member of the Pacific coast delegation, and can go to Congress as long as he wants to.

Next Monday there will be no meeting of the Stock Board, and consequently no stock report.

WILD FIRING.

A Kansas Man Tries to Kill an Editor and Shoots His Friend.

LEAVENWORTH, (Ks.), May 26.—Thomas C. Thurston, who killed his business partner, Mr. Embry, on the 1st of January last, and was acquitted about a month ago, met D. R. Anthony, editor of the Times, on Delaware street, this afternoon, and after passing him, turned and fired two shots at him, neither of which took effect. One shot, however, struck John P. Douglas, a young man employed in the Times office, making a severe scalp wound, and the other struck L. Baker, a lawyer, who was standing on the sidewalk about 600 feet away, in the left side about two inches below the nipple, and passed through his body, inflicting a wound at first thought to be mortal. Physicians now think he may recover. Mr. Baker is a prominent attorney who defended Thurston and cleared him when he was tried for murdering Embry. The affair created great excitement, and the officers were obliged to secure Thurston to prevent the people inflicting summary punishment upon him.

Trouble Among the Bodie Miners.

BODIE, May 26.—Last night the west crosscut 500-foot level of the University mine made connection with an east crosscut of the Maryland Consolidated. The University men at once compelled the Maryland men to go to the surface, and took possession of the crosscut, as well of certain drifts or ledges from the crosscut. A bulkhead was put in the crosscut, to the Maryland shaft. The Maryland people allege that the University men were armed with shot guns, which is strenuously denied upon the part of the latter. Colonel A. C. Dunn, President of the Maryland, now here, says that there are three valuable ledges in the crosscut, which are the property of his company. One claim alone hauled five loads of dirt per day four miles to water, and averaged over $70 for each six working days, or for the year over $37,000.

The Los Angeles Herald of May 25th says: About three weeks ago the camp of a shepherd employed by J. B. Lankershim on the Alamo Rancho, was robbed and his cabin burned. Yesterday the shepherd returned to his camp, and while stooping over the spring some fired at him, the ball passing through the back part of his leg just above the knee and lodging in his hand.

Bockhoff, the vitriol-thrower, of Sacramento, was sentenced on Tuesday last to eight years' imprisonment. Bockhoff is 38 years of age. He threw vitriol on his wife, his son and his daughter-in-law. All three, however, requested the mercy of the Court.

An enthusiastic New Mexican says: More gold dust was taken from Hillsboro placers in 1879 than from any other gold camp, hydraulic washing excepted, in New Mexico or Arizona. One claim alone hauled five loads of dirt per day four miles to water, and averaged over $70 for each six working days, or for the year over $37,000.

From the Burlington Hawkeye.

The profuseness with which Mr. Blaine's canvassers are lavishing money in all parts of the Union is exciting general remark. Mr. Sherman's agents in the South are reported as being as discouraged as they were astonished at the large amounts of money spent in the South in Mr. Blaine's interests. "Where I spent one dollar they spent a hundred," said a Sherman agent in Louisiana. We do not understand that it is charged that Mr. Blaine is spending the money corruptly nor in another than a legitimate manner, nor do we credit such a charge unless corroborated by the facts, but it is evident that the Blaine canvass is being pushed with a vigor and prodigality that is possible only with a very liberal bank account to draw upon.

A Fish Found in a Well.

The Red Bluff People's News says: There is an exhibition in this town a very peculiar fish, which was obtained from a well in the vicinity, to which it must have found its way by some subterranean passage. It is unlike any fresh water fish we know of, and would call it a species of smelt. It would be well shaped but for a large pouch under its side, and possesses one dorsal, a pair of ventral and anal fins, and a pretty forked tail fin. The eyes are small, white and sightless, but the fish is very lively and spry.

The Rock Ahead.

The New York Tribune has a pledge signed by 2,000 Republicans of that city that they will not vote for a third-term candidate if he is nominated. Similar papers, with large numbers of signatures to them, are extant in Cincinnati and Chicago. Is it not time that the Grant faction should perceive the rock upon which they are threatening to wreck the party?—Baltimore American (Rep.)

— An Italian harper, assisted by a boy violinist, last night furnished music for the faro game in Charlie Becker's saloon.

— J. L. Crow is in from Clover valley. He reports everything quiet in his section. No grasshoppers have appeared there yet. The roads are passable. The prospects for crops are good.

— Mr. Merritt of Long Valley was in town to-day. He says the grasshoppers are hatching out by myriads on his ranch. He hears that the insects are coming out in great numbers on the ranches west of Alkali lake, even in places where it was supposed no eggs had been deposited.

— G. W. Mershon has sold the Opera saloon on Virginia street to Thos. H. Devall of San Francisco. Mr. Mershon will shortly open a saloon at the stand he occupied last summer, on the corner of Second and Virginia streets. Beer will be five cents a glass over his counter, as it was last season.

PERSONAL.

A. McIntosh of Boca is in town. S. Peyster has returned from the Bay. C. Knust got home from the Bay this morning.

Tom Fitch went east on Tuesday night. He is growing heavier.

Matt Rapp of Steamboat was in town to-day. He reports a dull season so far.

Harry L. Bowmer and wife arrived from Alturas last evening. Harry will shortly take his old place in the Gazette office.

J. J. Valentine, superintendent of Wells Fargo's express, went west last night. He says there is no danger of the letter business being disturbed by the postoffice department.

CHINESE NEED APPLY.

Relative to the employment of Chinese on the new Bodie railroad, the Carson Appeal says: Not long ago 150 coolies were offered at $35 a month by Joseph Cowan, a special officer in Chinatown. It is creditable to Mr. Yerington that although he was paying boys $2 a day he refused the coolie labor. There is a good deal of work on a railroad that boys can do and they should be encouraged. The workmen on the new road will all be white.

TILDEN AND REFORM.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION AT WINNEMUCCA.

The Democratic State Convention met at Centennial hall, Winnemucca, yesterday afternoon. It was a very respectable and intelligent body. The delegation from Washoe compared favorably with that from any county in the state. Perhaps no Democrat in this state has done more disinterested or valuable service for that party than Hon. J. C. Hagerman. He has worked late and early without the hope of fee or reward, has never pushed his claims for anything, and never acted the sororhead.

WINNEMUCCA, 27.—The May Convention was called to order in Centennial Hall at 2 o'clock P. M. by J. A. Mahany, Secretary of the State Central Committee. Judge A. M. Hillhouse, of Eureka, was elected temporary Chairman by acclamation, and J. A. Mahany, of Storey, temporary Secretary, and James Thacker temporary Sergeant-at-Arms. W. F. Dyer, of Lander, and G. W. Huffaker, of Washoe, were elected Vice-Presidents.

THE COMMITTEE.

A committee of one from each county chosen by the respective delegations, was appointed on Credentials, namely: E. B. Stonehill of Storey, Lampman of Elko, Sadler of Eureka, McTarnahan of Esmeralda, Dyer of Lander, Cohen of Lincoln, Gregory of Washoe, Williams of Nye, Clayton of White Pine, Richards of Churchill, Healey of Douglas, Hanna of Humboldt.

On Permanent Organization and Order of Business, the Chair appointed Davis of Storey, McFarland of Washoe, McBeth of Lander, Sears of Elko and Stampley of Ormsby.

On platform and resolutions a committee of seven was appointed by the Chair, namely, Canavan, Davis, Haley, Hagerman, Briggs, Merrill and Stampley.

On motion the convention adjourned until 3:30 P. M.

The Convention reconvened at 3 P. M. with Hillhouse in the chair. The report of the Committee on Resolutions was adopted.

A resolution declaring Tilden to be the first choice of the Nevada Democracy for President was adopted by a vote of 58 to 36.

G. W. Cassidy was placed in nomination for Congress by A. C. Ellis and it was seconded by a representative from every county in the State. Cassidy was nominated by acclamation with three cheers and the leading men of the town talked seriously of

LYNCHING POHL.

The young scoundrel's father was more indignant than any one else and was in a pitiful state of mind when he realized the enormity of his son's crime. He told Mr. Ogg that if he could find the boy he would shoot him and throw him down a shaft, and begged to be allowed to thus wipe out the disgrace brought upon his name by his depraved son. The officers with much difficulty prevented the citizens from putting their threats into execution and kept young Pohl carefully guarded until he could be brought into Court. The mother of the little girl is lying very ill, and has not yet been informed of the frightful outrage.

THE CASE IN COURT.

The preliminary examination of Pohl is in progress this afternoon before Justice Flannigan with closed doors. Gold Hill is thoroughly aroused, and a great crowd surrounds the building where the examination is being held.

It is not by any means certain that the citizens will not yet get hold of the scoundrel and give him short shift and a sudden cord.

TWO MEN DROWNED IN THE RIVER.

During the recent flood, a young man named Vining, who was farming on the south side of the Truckee river, attempted to cross to the north side with a two horse team. He was swept away with his team and drowned. Neither his body nor the horses and wagon have been recovered. The accident has been known to very few people. It occurred in the canyon near Mrs. Bidleman's ranch, not far from Wadsworth.

Last Monday two Italians tried to cross the river in a boat near the locality of the former accident. The boat was in some way made fast to a rope. In midstream the rope parted and the boat was overturned. Andrea Guisani managed to reach the shore in safety, but Louis (surname unknown) was borne down by the current and disappeared. His body has not been recovered.

Coroner Jones learned from a reporter that R. L. Squires had a narrow escape from drowning in Indian Creek, Plumas county, Cal., one day last week. The creek is very swift and for some distance was choked with drift-wood, below which the water ran. Mr. Squires was standing at the head of the drift, engaged in pulling wood out of the creek. He fell in, and was carried by the rapidity of the torrent beneath the mass of the accumulated drift. After what seemed to him to be hours of submersion he came to the surface, some distance down the stream, below the jam. His wife had noticed his disappearance and, not wishing to be left a widow, seized a pole and rushed to the rescue. She reached the river's brink just in time to twist the pole into the flowing locks of her expiring husband, and drag him to the shore. He considers it a close call.

WORKERS SAVE HER HUSBAND FROM WATER GRAVE.

J. L. Crow informs a GAZETTE reporter that R. L. Squires had a narrow escape from drowning in Indian Creek, Plumas county, Cal., one day last week. The creek is very swift and for some distance was choked with drift-wood, below which the water ran. Mr. Squires was standing at the head of the drift, engaged in pulling wood out of the creek. ### WORK ON MINING CLAIMS.

Mr. Daggett says: "After consulting with the Land Commissioner, I find that he has formally decided that the work on a claim may be done at any time within the twelve months beginning with the 1st of January following the location, to do their first annual work. Hence, a claim located now (May 15, 1889) would hold good without work until January 1890, but some time between January 1st, 1881, and January 1st, 1882, the work must be done. This is the interpretation given by the Attorney-General, and may be accepted as the law."

A HEAVY FAILURE.

A business man of Tuscarora, who has just returned from a visit to Elko, informed the Times-Review that M. P. Freeman's liabilities outside of all assets, will amount to $20,000, of which there are $63,000 in the county, and $26,000 due the Bank of California. Mr. Freeman left Elko yesterday morning for California, after turning over the property he owned in the county.

THE CRASH AT RAILROAD.

Says the Elko Independent: Deputy Sheriff Lowe and Dr. Huntington returned from Railroad last evening and inform us that the cutting "affray" between Tom Hanoun and J. P. Cassidy was greatly exaggerated. In the preliminary examination, yesterday, it was shown that Cassidy was the aggressor, and Hanoun was discharged from custody. The wounded man will recover.
